Gen.12,4: “So Abram went, as the LORD had told him.”

Gal.3,7: “Understand, then, that those who have faith are children of Abraham.”

Do we trust God with our future? Not with the future of our making, wishing, fearing, planning, but the future as it comes towards us in accordance with God’s word? Do we trust God who does as He says with our future? Faith does, and Abram was an example of it: “So Abram went, as the LORD had told him.”

To us God’s word is given in Jesus, in his words and his call: Follow me! When we trust God with our future because we know it to be in Christ (he died and rose for us!), we become liberated in the present to do things Jesus’ way, to see the demands of the times and serve them with love and gentleness, as ones concerned with giving without fear rather than worried about getting with much fear.

Do we trust God with our future? A task we find help for by immersing ourselves often in the life and words of the Word of God – Jesus Christ.
