Is.41,13: "I am the LORD your God who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, 'Do not fear; I will help you'."

Mt.14,30-31: "When Peter saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, 'Lord, save me!' Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him."

We don't really know how things stand with us because we do not possess the knowledge of our end. Only if we did would we really know. But this being so, can things stand better with us then when they cause us to turn to the Lord and say, 'Lord, save me!', to put our hand into His and to listen to Him as He says, 'Do not fear; I will help you'? Because then I shall know that my end has become the concern of the LORD my God. And who or what shall prevent Him from making it agree with His will?
