Zech.8,19: “Love truth and peace.”

Jn.8,32: “Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

God is the guardian of truth. Not to speak the truth to one another, not to render true and sound judgment and exercise justice, diminishes us and removes from life kindness and benevolence. Peace cannot flourish nor can anything that depends on it.

Do we love truth unless we are true? It is therefore most necessary that we don't leave out of account Jesus Christ who says “I am the truth”, but that we hold to his teaching: “Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”
