Ps.62,5: "My soul, find rest in God; my hope comes from him."

Mt.11,15: "Whoever has ears, let them hear."

'The soul is apt to be dragged away from its anchorage, or is readily tempted to add a second confidence to the one sole and sure ground of reliance; we must, therefore, stir ourselves up to maintain the holy position which we were at first able to assume. Be still, O my soul! submit yourself completely, trust immovably, wait patiently. Let none of your enemies' imaginings, consultings, flatteries, or maledictions cause you to break the King's peace. ...

Faith with a single eye sees herself secure, but if her eye be darkened by two confidences, she is blind and useless. For my expectation is from him. We expect from God because we believe in him. Expectation is the child of prayer and faith, and is owned of the Lord as an acceptable grace. We should desire nothing but what would be right for God to give, then our expectation would be all from God.'
